

CURRICULUM MAP
Master of Science in Adult Education
2016-2017

Outcomes	ADE 500	ADE 600	ADE 605	ADE 608	ADE 610	ADE 655	ADE 689	Comprehensive Exam
Analyze and evaluate historical, philosophical and sociological concepts that have developed within the field of adult education and distinguish how they should best be synthesized within the students' future practice.	I	A	S-M			S		M
Appraise and incorporate adulthood and development concepts that impact learning theory appropriate to their diverse audience through a critical application of research literature.	I	A-S		A	A	S	S	M
Research, differentiate, and create their unique foundation for the development, delivery, and assessment of adult education and human resource and development programs for their particular settings.	I	I		A	A		S-M	M
Analyze and compare theories, roles, and practices that support adult education and human resource development programs to produce innovative and authentic learning for adult populations.	I	I	A	A	S			M
Formulate and develop teaching practices and materials that are sensitive to, and relevant for, adult learners that comprise the cultural mosaic in American adult education.	I	I	A	A	A	S-M		M

I = Introduced
A = Applied
S = Synthesized
M = Mastery Demonstrated